Episode 3: How to Tip Without P*ssing People Off

Generation Debt Radio September 18, 2014

Authors: William Skinner, Gregory Bieger, Jordan Dietsch

"It is a question that has stumped people for ages. Now we all know to tip % 15 to %20 when you go to a restaurant, BUT what about everything else?"

In this episode of GDR, I was asked to be a guest to discuss tipping from an international perspective!

Projects

Generation Debt Radio Promotional Video

November 2014 to Present

Members: William Skinner, Jordan Dietsch, Gregory Bieger

This was a promotional video done for the podcast Generation Debt Radio. Filmed during the recording of our fifth episode it demonstrates the quality and progressiveness of our product. Team work was heavily incorporated and absolutely necessary as we recorded an episode and filmed a promotional video simultaneously.
